Handwritten musical notation on a series of staves. The notation includes various symbols such as slanted lines, vertical strokes, and groups of notes, possibly representing a specific musical exercise or a set of rhythmic patterns. The page is numbered 14 at the top center.

The notation is organized into approximately 18 horizontal staves. The first staff contains a series of slanted lines. The second staff contains a group of vertical strokes followed by a group of notes. The remaining staves contain various symbols, including slanted lines, vertical strokes, and groups of notes, arranged in a pattern that suggests a musical exercise or a set of rhythmic patterns.

Handwritten musical notation on a page of ten staves. The top staff contains a series of slanted lines, followed by a sequence of notes: five 'p' notes, five 'P' notes, and five 'q' notes. The remaining staves contain single notes, alternating between 'p' and 'q' on each staff.

Handwritten cursive letters: a group of six 't's, a group of six 'f's, and a group of five 'B's, separated by vertical bars.
