Handwritten calligraphic text in two rows, enclosed in a rectangular border. The script is highly decorative, featuring elaborate flourishes and loops. The characters are arranged in two rows of eight characters each. The top row contains the characters: س, ب, ا, و, ن, ي, ا, س. The bottom row contains the characters: ا, ب, س, و, ن, ي, ا, س. Each character is rendered in a dark ink with fine, light-colored lines tracing the path of the pen strokes, showing the direction and flow of the writing. Small arrows and dots are used as guides for the placement and direction of the pen strokes. The overall style is characteristic of classical Islamic calligraphy, possibly a form of Thuluth or Nasta'liq.
