[BY CABLE TO THE HERALD.]

LONDON, Jan. 23, 1895.—The Daily News says that the commission appointed to investigate the Armenian outrages arrived at Moosh on Monday.

The Globe publishes a despatch from Constantinople, stating that Izmirlian, the recently appointed Patriarch of all the Armenians, has addressed a letter to Riaz Pacha, Minister of Justice, declaring his intention to send a special delegate to Sassoon to inquire into the reported massacre of Christians in Armenia.
