

ARMENIA'S NEW PATRIARCH.

He Takes the Oath of Allegiance to the Sultan—Refugees in the Caucasus.

[BY CABLE TO THE HERALD.]

LONDON, Jan. 10, 1895.—The St. James Gazette publishes a despatch from Constantinople which says that the new Armenian Patriarch, Izmirlian, was formally enthroned yesterday as "The Patriarch of all the Armenians."

After he had taken the oath the Patriarch delivered an address, in which he said:—"Fidelity to the government ought to move in accord with the conviction that we enjoy complete security of our honor, lives and property. The rights of the nation and the Church are sacred and imprescriptible."

A despatch to the Times from Odessa says that large numbers of Armenian refugees are daily entering the Caucasus, travelling through Turkey to reach their destination.
