

FOR ARMENIA'S CAUSE.

It is fitting that Boston and the commonwealth should make protest against Turkish tyranny and savagery, and no better place could have been chosen for a meeting of sympathizers with Armenia's just cause than historic Faneuil hall.

When humanity, civilization and Christianity sustain such insult and injury as that inflicted by bloodthirsty Turks, it is high time that indignation should voice itself in free America. The ruler at Constantinople ought for very shame to see to it that the Armenian massacres are investigated, and those who are responsible for rapine and slaughter brought to stern judgment. Since he will not do his duty willingly, he must be forced at least to respect the right of human beings to be exempt from torture and murder by cruel and fanatic hands.

The sultan may keep the American newspapers out of Turkey, but he cannot help hearing America's protest against wrong to Armenia wherever he may hide himself.

---

Armenia's cry for justice must not be denied, if it takes a new crusade of nations to force the moslem to respect the rights of humanity.
