

Want Britain to Threaten Turkey.

LONDON, June 10.—Leading English politicians, it is asserted, have intimated to members of the Cabinet that the Ministry will be supported by public opinion if Great Britain joins with other powers in a display of force as a reply to Turkey's answer to the proposals for reform in Armenia.

Russian Troops Go Towards Turkey.

LONDON, June 11—4 A. M.—A Moscow despatch says the Twentieth Division of the Caucasian Army has been ordered to Kars and other garrison stations on the Russo-Turkish frontier. Contractors in Kars and Tiflis have received large orders for stores and ammunition.
