

The Armenian Agitation.

A despatch by Commercial Cable from St. Petersburg conveys a denial from the Ottoman Embassy there of the latest Armenian concoction. Atrocities apparently having begun to pall somewhat on the palates of the public, it was sought to give a little variety to the menu by the introduction of an extra course in the shape of an Armenian uprising.